Director's Message

Mrs. Revathi Srinivasan

In the tapestry of life, the phrase "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" beautifully weaves the idea that the world is one family. This ancient Sanskrit saying holds profound meaning, emphasizing a sense of global unity and interconnectedness.

Interestingly, this concept finds a vibrant expression in our schools, transforming it into a living example of unity in diversity.

For me, "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" is not just a philosophical theme; it is an everyday experience. Schools, often referred to as small-scale version of society, function as ecosystems in themselves. Within their walls, students hailing from diverse cultures, backgrounds, and religions coexist harmoniously. The simple act of sharing their tiffin becomes a celebration of different cuisines, fostering a sense of belonging and unity.

Gone are the days when we were merely asked to tolerate differences in beliefs and opinions. The evolving tale of being global citizens now emphasizes the importance of respect for each other's uniqueness. Taking it a step further, we instill in our children and students the value of celebrating these differences. As an educational institute and a group of schools we play a pivotal role in teaching collaboration and encouraging the celebration of various festivals and cultures. Any institution, be it a school or a community, thrives on synergy—how individuals and diverse elements come together and complement each other.

The essence of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" extends seamlessly to our education system, where we advocate for an interdisciplinary approach to concepts. It is a recognition that learning is not confined to the boundaries of subjects but is a holistic, interconnected experience.

As educational institutions, as parents, and as grandparents, we bear the responsibility of nurturing the next generation of world leaders, thinkers, and, most importantly, global citizens. By embracing the simple yet profound concept of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam," we contribute to making the world a happier place. It is a collective effort to raise individuals who not only excel academically but also understand the importance of empathy, collaboration, and embracing diversity.

This ancient Indian concept resonates deeply with our commitment to fostering a sense of global unity within our diverse school community. The emphasis is not just on academic achievement but also on cultivating qualities that transcend geographical and cultural boundaries. It is about instilling values that promote understanding, compassion, and a shared responsibility for the well-being of our global family.

In conclusion, "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" is a guiding principle that shapes the culture of our schools. It is a reminder that despite our differences, we are all part of the same human family. By imparting this wisdom to our students, we are sowing the seeds for a future where the world truly becomes one big, inclusive family.

Inspiring Words from our Head

Mrs. Lakshmi Madhusudan

Dear Students and Parents,

The theme Vasudhaiva kutumbakam was chosen as the theme for the year 2023-2024 after much thought and deliberation. Today we live in a globalized world, borders are shrinking, there is increased competition and every individual is surging ahead to keep with the world and carve out a niche for themselves. We need to join hands to make this rapidly shrinking and increasingly threatened world a better place for ourselves and for generations to come. We have to ensure sustainable practices so that the generations that follow us are able to enjoy the greenery and life on this earth. Empathy involves understanding oneself and others. To ensure peace and harmony, we must be disciplined in finding ways to resolve conflicts. We should be able to understand and regulate our behaviour, to be able to speak and communicate effectively is the key. Only then we can ensure peace in this world. In working towards the good for the community that transcends beyond the pronouns 'I', 'me' and myself. Working for the larger good instills and encourages just practices which in turn will ensure prosperity for all. Unless we collaborate and work as partners we will not be able to achieve success. This success helps create benefits for all. Summing up, working on the people of this planet in partnership will help achieve PEACE and PROSPERITY bringing out the essence of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam.

Words of Wisdom from our Mentor

Mrs. Gladys Cabral

Dear Parents and Students,

Fostering oneness as a theme in school is one of the most ideal theme as it nurtures unity for a bright future. It emerges as a powerful force for positive change. We at school prepare children and teach lessons on cultural diversity and prepare integrated curriculum, so that we can equip students with the skills that are necessary for life. Children thus feel the sense of belonging and acceptance. They will be able to adapt and appreciate the unique qualities of every student member. Education means empowering the minds. What better way can schools inculcate values like empathy, tolerance, open-mindedness and have a positive approach and contribute positively to the world.

Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much

Insights from the Editor

Embracing Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

In today's complex and interconnected world, the importance of unity cannot be overstated. Global challenges, ranging from climate change and poverty to political unrest and pandemics, underscore the urgent need for collective action and cooperation. By embracing the principle of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, students are inculcated with the essential skills and mindset to navigate these challenges with compassion, empathy, and a sense of shared responsibility.

Imagine a time long before borders, when the earth was one massive landmass known as Pangaea. Just like Pangaea, Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam reminds us of our shared origins and interconnectedness. Our school believes in fostering this sense of oneness in all.

The spirit of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam is palpable in the way we interact and learn together. Regardless of cultural backgrounds, beliefs, or socio-economic status, every individual is valued and respected for their unique contributions. Through various initiatives, such as annual function, parents' day, collaborative projects, and community service endeavors, we actively promote empathy, understanding, and solidarity among our students.

As we navigate the complexities of the 21st century, let us heed the wisdom of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam and strive to cultivate a culture of unity, tolerance, and mutual respect. As we march forward into an uncertain future, let us remember that in the tapestry of humanity, we are all threads intricately woven together, and it is only by embracing our interconnectedness that we can create a brighter tomorrow for generations to come.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam for a Better Future

When we are young, we are taught about the values of sharing, caring, empathy, kindness, togetherness and unity. During childhood, we look at them as mere fun activities. But now, when I look back, I realise that these are the same principles of Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam which enable us to become a responsible citizen by fostering a deep understanding of interconnectedness and a commitment to collaborative problem solving for the betterment of humanity.

Today, we live amid war, violence, geopolitical tensions and fight in the name of power, land and religion. Have we ever thought that just as all five fingers of our hand are not of an equal length, we, as humans, cannot expect everyone to have the same ideologies. But, when all five fingers come together to form a powerful fist, anything can be achieved. In the same way when all of us come together as one family we can cherish every moment of our lives.

We, Sunitians, right now, cannot mediate between countries or communities to stop fighting and understand each other's problems. However, all we can do right now is to understand the concept of oneness in the midst of diversity, help everyone and inspire others to follow the ideology of vasudhaiva kutumbakam so that when we grow up, we will have imbibed the values through practice. So, to make this world a better place, we have to start TODAY!

Sociality

We need a global mindset to resolve today's socio-economic issues. Since the last decade, all of us have become global citizens with access to social media by connecting with friends across the globe and accessing information about numerous places, things, and cultures about which we have never heard about. Because of this digital world, several businesses have expanded globally and our emotions have crossed the oceans. We are one big family with close friends, and relatives around the globe.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

Recently I saw Flamingos happily playing around the Thane Creek. Suddenly I thought how lucky they are! Because they don't need a visa or any other permission to cross the borders. This led my thoughts to the concept of "Vasudhaiva kutumbakam", meaning the whole world is one family.

Vasudhaiva kutumbakam is an idea, first coined in our Vedic Upanishads. I believe that if humans sincerely start following this principle, then all the wars will end and sorrows will vanish. In today's world where grief and hatred are at their peak, Vasudhaiva kutumbakam is like a magic wand. If we start following it, we will not only end the enmity between our fellow humans but we will also start respecting and conserving our mother nature.

I am sure that the thought of 'Vasudhaiva kutumbakam' has immense power to solve many problems that we face today. If I believe that this whole Earth is my family, then, I will happily conserve nature. This will stop the problems of global warming and some species from becoming extinct. So friends, to solve the problems that Mother Earth is suffering from, we need to cooperate and this will only be achieved by stressing the importance of the principle of Vasudhaiva kutumbakam. Lastly, I would like to quote a thought that I read in a book, "THE EARTH DOES NOT BELONG TO US, BUT WE BELONG TO THE EARTH".

Swara Sachin Gupte (Class 3)

The World Is One Big Family

'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' is a sentiment that evokes that the whole world is one family, whether from a material perspective, or a spiritual one. In 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', Vasudev means earth, and Kutum means family. Thus, the combined meaning is 'Earth is one big family'.

For every living being on the earth, family is the priority. All living beings love their family because they are companions in their happiness and sorrow. However, it is not true that there are no fights and ideological differences in the family. But these differences of opinion are for a few moments.

Presently we are living with people of different religions, castes and cultures. The divine has created all living and nonliving things in this universe, including humans, animals, birds, plants, rivers, oceans, mountains and forests, to exist together in harmony. Therefore, this world has been created with diversity as an integral and natural phenomenon.

One World, One Together

One sun shine bright, on all we see,
From mountains tall, to the rolling sea.
One moon so round, hangs in the night,
Guiding explorers with its gentle light.

One Earth we share, with land and air,
Forests and fields, a world so fair
One sky above, blue and wide,
Where fluffy clouds in the sunshine hide.

One human race,
though skin may vary,
From fairest white, to deepest berry,
One laugh, one tear, one heart that beats,
One world we share, on tiny feet

Like puzzle pieces, we fit just right,
Different shapes, but colors bright.
Together we learn, together we grow,
Helping hands make kindness flow.

One world, one hope, let's join our hands,
Building bridges across the lands.
With open hearts and voices strong,
We sing the song of peace ,all life long!

101 Reasons

While we remain divided by the boundaries that our country defines as its own.
While we remain divided for another 101 other reasons
There remains a part,
A part that reminds us that we lie in the same boat, Stuck in the same ocean
Which reminds us that we remain to be connected by our morals.
Kindness, honesty, and compassion remain a few threads that weave us together
While we stay apart and find hundreds of differences between each other
There is no denying of the fact that we are all together, in the same world where we believe in the tapestry of human connections that we can do anything.
The world unfolds as a family, within the shared embrace of this cosmic kinship, we discover the profound beauty of unity and compassion.
In the gentle whispers of the wind, the rhythmic beat of our collective heart, we find the common language of love that transcends borders and binds us together.
Through empathy and kindness, our shared humanity harmonizes into a melody that resonates with the eternal truth.
Well, there is no denying that - the world is a family.
A family that does not sit together for dinner every night but a family that comes right at the time when we need them.
While we remain divided by the boundaries that our country defines as its own.
And another 101 reasons, we still remain as one big family.

A call to cherish and protect the same,
To preserve our world's diversity.
When storms arise, and hardships befall,
Together we rise, no one left behind.
With compassion's call, we stand tall,
For every soul, solace and peace to find.
Let us be conduits of love's grace,
Spreading kindness and empathy all around.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

Majority of the human beings living on this planet are cognizant of the renowned phrase Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. The meaning of this phrase is "ONE WORLD, ONE FAMILY". This phrase is used by our honourable and respected prime minister 'Narendra Modi' in most of his speeches. We all are bound together like a family and our destiny links us with a common thread.

In today's developing and growing world, the phrase Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam has more relevance than ever, since problems like inequality, injustice, poverty and conflict are more relevant. The ancient Indian philosophy highlights the idea that the entire world is one big family, where every individual is a member, regardless of their race, religion, nationality or ethnicity. The phrase in simple words represents the belief that we should treat everyone with kindness, compassion and respect, and strive to live in peace and harmony. By promoting unity, cooperation, and mutual respect, we can work towards resolving conflicts and reducing inequalities. This will create a world that is more peaceful, harmonious, and inclusive. The phrase was used in the logo of the 7th International Earth Science Olympiad, which was held in Mysore, in 2013. It was designed to emphasize the integration of the Earth's subsystems in the school curriculum.

The theme and the logo for India's G20 Presidency 2023 has a mention of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" or "One Earth-One Family-One Future". The logo was selected after scrutiny of 2400 pan-India submissions invited through a logo design contest.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam offers a powerful reminder that every individual has a role to play in building a better world.

Our immense trust will always stay gold,
May our religions never ruin the bond we hold.

It's an old saying , "a friend in need is a friend indeed",
We must forever nourish the oneness' sown seed.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

In 2023, the G20 summit was held in India and its theme was 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'. It is a Sanskrit phrase for 'One World, One Family'. It emphasizes on being a world citizen who sees no boundaries of caste, creed, gender, religion and treats everyone equally.

India has always been following the footsteps of peace, because we believe that the world is one family. Just like we protect our family members, India has always been a helping hand in the times of difficulty. For instance, during the pandemic, India donated more than 17 crore vaccines to over 96 countries worldwide.

Just as a mother loves all her children equally, India, also treats its citizens equally by offering equal opportunities to all without any discrimination, and strives to provide everyone with better facilities. This is the face of a new and developing India which still follows the ancient saying:

अयं निजः परो वेति गणना लघुचेतसाम् ।
उदारचरितानां तु वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ॥

Meaning: 'This is mine, that is yours' is the outlook of narrow-minded people. On the contrary, for people with a liberal nature and a generous heart, the entire Earth is like one family.

Our Encounter with Bandits

During my summer vacation, I invited my friends, Samarth and Vihaan to stay at my place as my parents were out of station. We played a lot of games and had fun. While watching the television, the news reporter said that the gang of bandits were on the loose and asked us to call the helpline if found. I locked all the doors and windows. Suddenly, we heard some noise from the basement. We woke up together, it was dark. I unlocked the door and came out slowly without making any noise. I saw three people wearing black masks. I realised that they were bandits. We heard footsteps on the staircase approaching my bedroom. It seemed like the bandits were inside the bedroom and my friend Vihaan locked the bedroom from outside. All three of us ran outside the house and Samarth locked the main door. Soon, the police had arrived and caught hold of the bandits. With this incident, we learned to be brave, to show presence of mind, friendship and teamwork.

Friendship

“A friend in need is a friend indeed” is an age old, but a very accurate proverb. Friends are an important part of our life, but a true friend is difficult to come by. A true friend is the one who will sacrifice anything and yet, not feel it a sacrifice at all. In Mahabharata, despite Karna knowing that he was following the wrong path, he helped evil Duryodhana and faced his death badly. On the other hand, the mighty Sugriva also had a friend, Lord Rama, who helped him when Sugriva was attacked by his own brother. A true friend is not the one who flatters you with praises, but respects you from the bottom of their heart and only wishes for your best. Friendship is to be treasured like a jewel. So, we should always value our true friends.

This beautiful idea has been guiding people for centuries, reminding us that despite our differences, we share the same planet, and all of us are connected. Just like we do in a family, we should treat each other with kindness, respect, and understanding, working together for the common good.

Here are some key points about Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam that you can explore further:

- Origins – The phrase comes from the Maha Upanishad. It emphasizes the importance of compassion.
- Meaning – celebration of diversity and an encouragement to appreciate the unique qualities and perspectives that each person brings to the world.
- Values – This philosophy promotes values like equality, compassion and peace.

One can practice Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam by being open minded, kind and respectful. We must help others and we must embrace the richness and beauty of our world’s many cultures.

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam gives the message of unity. There are billions of lives on this earth. Even though we have people from different races, religions, languages and countries, we still live under the same sky. When we treat the world as one family, we foster a sense of belonging and collective responsibility.

It leads to a more harmonious and peaceful environment, as people from different backgrounds can share their unique perspectives and experiences, leading to mutual understanding and respect. Before misfortune gets warped

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam

Given the context of the world we are living in, there has never been an apt time in the history of the world which can truly justify this statement 'The world is one family'. We don't realize this or we are not conscious enough to understand the significance of this word. Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam meaning 'the world is one family' are not just words, nor a sentence but the supreme, powerful speech said by the great legends. The concept of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" has its roots in ancient Indian philosophy heritage, and they date more than a thousand years back. The whole world is populated by people who are working to attain the same things: happiness, peace, security, resources like food and shelter, and a hopeful future that can be acquired if the world is one family. There may be many unique and precious things in your life but family is the top priority. Nature's beauty lies in the interdependence of nations—none fully self-sufficient. Your whole life, career, job is always dependent on your family. Today, your greatest achievements are all because of your great family.

वसुधैव कुटुंबकम्

वसुधैव कुटुंबकम् हा 'एक विश्व एक कुटुंब' या शब्दाचा संस्कृत वाकप्रचार आहे. याचा अर्थ जात, पंथ, लिंग, धर्म यांच्या सीमा न पाहणारा जागतिक नागरिक असणे असा आहे. भारत हा अशा देशांपैकी एक आहे ज्याने कधीही इतर देशावर हल्ला केला नाही कारण ज्याप्रमाणे आपण आपल्या कुटुंबातील सदस्यांचे रक्षण करतो त्याचप्रमाणे भारताचे विचार आहेत.

भारताने नेहमीच अडचणीच्या काळात मदत केली आहे. उदाहरणार्थ, कोरोना महामारीच्या काळात भारताने ९६ पेक्षा जास्त देशांना १७ कोटींहून अधिक लसी दान केल्या. हाच भारत आहे, जो आजही ही प्राचीन म्हण पाळतो:

अयं निजः परो वेति गणना
लघुचेतसाम् । उदारचरितानां तु
वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम् ॥
तात्पर्यः "हे माझे, ते तुझे" ही संकुचित विचारसरणी आहे. याउलट, उदारमतवादी स्वभावाच्या लोकांसाठी संपूर्ण पृथ्वी एका कुटुंबासारखी आहे.

या सुंदर श्लोकाचा अर्थ असा कि, माझे - तुझे करणारी माणसं संकुचित प्रवृत्तीची असतात. त्यांना स्वतः व्यतिरिक्त काहीच दिसत नाही. पण एखादा विद्वान म्हणेल, “ना काही माझे आहे ना काही तुझे , हे सारे जगच आपले आहे! “

‘वसुधैव कुटुंबकम्’ हा सिध्दांत आपण जगासमोर मांडला. परंतु, आपल्याच देशात वाढत जाणारी वृद्धाश्रमांची संख्या पाहिली तर जिथे कुटुंबच एकत्र राहू शकत नाहीत तिथे या संकल्पनेला कसे मूर्त रूप मिळणार? ही विसंगती टाळायची असेल तर आधी घरातील माणसांनी एकत्र यायला हवं. जुन्या पिढीचे आदर्शवादी विचार व नवीन पिढीचे वास्तववादी विचार यांत कुठेतरी तडजोड होणे आवश्यक आहे.

पृथ्वीवरच्या सर्व जीवित प्राण्यांमध्ये केवळ माणसाला सद विवेक बुद्धीचे वरदान मिळाले आहे. याचा सदुपयोग करून जर आपल्या माणसात व बाकी सर्व प्राणी व पशुपक्षी, वन्य जीवन वा वनस्पती, सगळ्यांचा आदर करून आपसात गुण्यागोविंदाने नांदण्याची कला साध्य झाली, तर वैदिक काळातली ‘वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्’ ही संकल्पना प्रत्यक्षात यायला वेळ लागणार नाही. संपूर्ण जग एक कुटुंब आहे, उदारपणे जगा!!

Family - Oneness

We all remember the golden days we spent with our family and that moment brings a smile and joy in our stressful lives.

Just imagine being in this world, divided by borders and laws, but we are still one big family. As members of a huge global family, we must stay together and help others in times of need.

Just like a family comes together on any happy occasion, a celebration, or in times of tragedy or distress, the world has to come together and always should be a part of one's happiness by being our strength and support system in times of calamities and disasters.

That is why we call it Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam. It means that "we all are one".

Chandra Chitnis

Celebrating Unity in Diversity

In a family, members are all of different thoughts, faces, voices, different food habits, choices, different mood but the best part is that they live united in one family. They enjoy all occasions, they share the moments of joy and sorrow together. They take mutual consent on various matters, take courageous steps many times to stand by each other, live happily always and stay United.

A perfect mix of various different countries on this globe, with their uniqueness in their culture, thought, knowledge, physical features, sciences, technology, human capital, makes us all a perfect family.

"This is mine; that is yours", is a narrow-minded belief. The big hearted wise man always believes that the whole world is a family.

Echoes of Oneness

In lands where the rivers dance and bend,

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam, our world,
our blend.

From the Himalayas' towering grace,
To the shores where oceans embrace.
In the colors of saris, vibrant and bold.

Wisdom's whispers, lessons teach.

Like the peacock, in pride unfurled,
Alluring beauty, in every world.

In the chants of mantras, ancient and pure,

Harmony's melody, ever endure.

Amidst the spice bazaars' lively maze,
A sense of solidarity, assembled in myriad ways.

In the flair of rangoli, bright and fine,
Unity's patterns, in every line.

Underneath the mango tree's sweet shade,

Brotherhood's bond, forever laid.

With hands folded in namaste's grace,
One world, one family, our eternal trace.

The advertisement that caught my attention

A hospital scene where an old lady brings tea to serve others, just to offer help and solace to those whose dear ones have been admitted and the family is worried. Amidst the hustle and bustle of modern life, it's easy to forget the simple yet profound gestures of kindness and understanding that can make a significant difference in someone else's life. This promotion beautifully portrays the essence of humanity - the willingness to offer support to others in their time of need, even while facing challenges of our own. These values resonate deeply because they depict humanity in its simplest form reminding us that we are all connected and that our actions can have an astounding effect to spread positivity and hope in a world. Incorporating the principle of Vasudeva Kutumbakam, which emphasizes the idea of the world as one family, into our lives is indeed the need of the hour. It calls for an ideology to recognize the inherent dignity and worth of every individual. By fostering a culture of compassion and empathy, we can create a more inclusive and harmonious society where everyone feels valued and supported. Let us not only be inspired by the videos of kindness and gratitude but also strive to embody these values in our daily lives. Whether it's a small act of kindness towards a stranger or a gesture of appreciation towards a loved one, each action contributes to building a more compassionate and connected world. Ultimately, it is through our collective efforts to uplift and support one another that we can create a more compassionate and empathetic world for generations to come.
